

"THE LUCKY MAN" by Brian Murphy

Sunday, July 29, 2012 4:00 p.m. Culver City Senior Center 4095 Overland Ave Culver City, CA 90230

FREE OF CHARGE ~ FREE PARKING

Ignore the signs in the parking lot -- this is a special event that affords attendees special privileges to park in the lot.

A compelling movie produced by a young Culver City parent who died of Lou Gehrig's disease (ALS) and shares his inspirational story while fighting a terminal illness. Brian, his wife and young children bring much energy and wisdom to the film. The award-winning movie is very thoughtful, compelling and inspiring.

Immediately following there will be a panel discussion with ALS medical professionals.

Open to the public, especially:

- Individuals living with ALS, and their families.
- Healthcare providers wishing to learn more about ALS.
- Students looking to learn about chronic illness.
- Film students.
- Community members looking to get involved with future disability film screenings.

Sponsored by the Culver City Disability Advisory Committee and the Culver City Senior Citizens' Association
